Questions 158-161 refer to the following article.

Craverton Returns to Business as Usual

—Brianna Wible, Staff Reporter

A power outage yesterday caused a number of businesses and area attractions in downtown Craverton to close. The cause of the outage is still unknown, but the early morning's stormy weather most likely played a part. — [1] —.

Sung Min Nam, who was leading a tour of some of the historic sites downtown, changed his itinerary. "Fortunately, I know the area well," Mr. Nam said. "I led the group back to the bus, and we headed to a different part of the city to discover alternative sites, such as Grantwood Park and Holtrop Tower." — [2] —.

For the Craverton Art Museum, the outage did not make a difference in earnings because its galleries are closed to the public on Tuesdays. — [3] —. Craverton University canceled its classes, but generators powered residence halls and cafeterias. Power was restored to most area businesses by late yesterday afternoon. — [4] —. And today Craverton returned to business as usual.

158. What is the main topic of the article?

- (A) Reasons to move to Craverton
- (B) An unexpected situation in Craverton
- (C) Reliable weather forecasting sources
- (D) Possible sites for a tourist attraction

159. Who most likely is Mr. Nam?

- (A) A reporter
- (B) A professor
- (C) An art historian
- (D) A tour guide

- (B) [2]
- (C) [3]
- (D) [4]

Questions 162-165 refer to the following text-message chain.

Isabelle Porter (8:15 A.M.): Hi. Our new intern, Mila Erben, arrives tomorrow. Do you have any tasks for Mila to start on?

Omar Shirani (8:16 A.M.): I'm really sorry. I was out of the office last week at the JNTD Convention. Can I get back to you later today?

Rico Alvarez (8:16 A.M.): I don't have anything for Mila right now.

Isabelle Porter (8:17 A.M.): I'm confused. Your department manager mentioned that your team would greatly benefit from having an intern. Can you work together to find something for her to do?

Omar Shirani (8:17 A.M.): Can you remind us what she's studying at the university?

Isabelle Porter (8:18 A.M.): Accounting. Her résumé says she'd like to become an auditor.

Rico Alvarez (8:19 A.M.): Well, I might have a few tasks, although they may be a bit dull.

Isabelle Porter (8:20 A.M.): That will do. And I might have some documents for her to copy. That ought to be enough for Mila's first week. But I'd appreciate it if you could meet with your team by Thursday and organize additional tasks for Mila for next week.

TEST 6

29 July

Shari MacCauley
103 Easton Lane
Tomintoul, Ballindalloch AB37 9EX

Dear Ms. MacCauley,

It was a privilege to stay in your home during the week of 22 July as part of the Scottish Connections home exchange program.

The location was the perfect setting for our family gathering. My daughter and son-in-law relished the peace and quiet of the village, while their children enjoyed playing in the wide-open space behind your home. And my husband was quite pleased with the large-screen television set in the living room.

It was very thoughtful of you to provide so many extra blankets. We did not expect it to be so cold at night in July.

As I said in the note I left on your dining room table on 25 July, the day of my wedding anniversary party, the lid of your food processor cracked as we were preparing our meal. We ordered a replacement lid that same day, which should be delivered to your home soon, assuming it hasn't been already. I sincerely apologize for the mishap.

I hope that you and your friends enjoyed our apartment here in Aberdeen just as much as we enjoyed your mountain home. If so, we hope you will be willing to exchange homes with us again in the future.

Sincerely,

Clara Brinwall

Calbo Cuts

My visit to Calbo Cuts as a first-time customer was disappointing. When I arrived, the sign on the door said "Walk-ins welcome," but the receptionist bluntly told me that I would need to wait about an hour for my haircut, even though only one other customer was in the shop and three stylists were there. The quality of the work was fine; the haircut was fairly priced at just $15, and I was happy with my standard men's cut. The stylist, though, cut my hair without saying a word. I understand that not everyone likes to make small talk, but I found my stylist's total silence to be rude. When she finished my haircut, she removed the haircutting cape without even offering to blow-dry my hair.

Dear Mr. Silver,

Thank you for taking the time to leave us a review. We always try to provide the best service available. If you feel that any of our staff were unaccommodating or unprofessional, then I would like to hear more details regarding your complaint. Feel free to call me directly at 803-555-0110.

At Calbo Cuts, we are serious about earning your continued business. I would be happy to schedule an appointment for you for a haircut and blow-dry with Marissa Lopez, as I believe she can provide you with the haircut experience you are looking for. In addition, on your next visit to Calbo Cuts, we would like to offer you a complimentary bottle of our all-natural shampoo, one of our best-selling products. We hope you will come back to Calbo Cuts in the future whenever you need a trim.

Best regards,

Jenna Makowski

Business Happenings

By Harriet Mellors

LONDON (1 April)—It is often hard for managers or team leaders to learn the best way to give feedback to employees and colleagues. Samia Bishara's new book, Facts on Feedback (Fox Mill Press), offers advice on this subject. Ms. Bishara is an expert consultant on company management problems and solutions. She advises managers to give facts and reactions, rather than advice and criticism.

Ms. Bishara will be speaking at Stonecliff Bookstore on Monday, 6 April at 2:00 P.M. For more details, visit www.stonecliff.co.uk.

Hello Oscar,

I understand that we have not yet booked all of the workshop leaders for our upcoming professional development program at the Onyx Hotel. I was in London a few days ago working on the Phillips account. While there, on 6 April, I had a chance to meet Samia Bishara and hear her speak on the topic of her new book, Facts on Feedback. I believe she would be an excellent choice to lead one of our workshops. I will gather further details about Ms. Bishara's background and availability and send that to you shortly. I look forward to joining you during Thursday's teleconference planning meeting.

Sincerely,

Mi-Sook Pan

Subject:	Conference dinner

Dear Ms. Lien,

I am looking forward to meeting you at the Business Leadership Conference in Sydney next month. I am delighted that you will be part of our panel, and I am looking forward to hearing you discuss your paper on local government initiatives.

As the panel chair, I am organizing a dinner for all the speakers immediately following the panel. Since you are locally based, perhaps you have insights about the places listed on the conference Web site? I am leaning towards Victoria Grill because it overlooks the harbor, but I would like to hear your opinion. Any place that can accommodate a large group would be especially desirable. I would visit these myself, but I am not arriving in Sydney until the day of our panel. I am hoping to make all arrangements by 1 October.

Best wishes,

Michal Zezula

Date:	September 3
Subject:	Chairs (Item #10405)

Dear Mr. Presser,

As a result of our company's expansion last spring, we moved into a larger facility and needed new furniture. At that time we ordered 22 office chairs from Gerenuk Office Design (Item #10405—Blue). Within two months, many of the chairs were broken and unusable. We were initially happy with the replacement chairs that you delivered free of charge, but some of those have now broken as well.

I am hereby requesting that you replace all 22 with chairs from your new Executive line (Item #10612) at no extra charge—assuming that they are better quality. These are comparable in price to the original model we purchased. If you are unable to do this, we will be forced to look elsewhere for our furnishing needs.

KLOOF PHOTOGRAPHY EVENT

On 21 November, all Kloof employees are invited to a celebration to commemorate our first five years in business. Please attend our company picnic featuring a traditional braai as well as live music and competitive games. The company will provide meats fresh off the grill prepared in the traditional braai style. Beverages will also be provided. In exchange, we ask that attendees either plan to bring a side dish to share or volunteer to join the setup crew. To make the event run smoothly, we will need at least two people to help with setup.

Our gathering will convene from 1 to 8 P.M. on the patio of our headquarters building. If you plan to attend, please open the sign-up sheet saved on the company drive and indicate there how you will contribute. Employees are welcome to bring a guest, so long as they indicate their intention to do so. Any questions may be directed to our events coordinator, Noxolo Nwosu, at nnwosu@kloofphoto.sa.

From:	Dawyd Johnson
To:	Noxolo Nwosu
Subject:	Kloof summer event
Date:	3 November

Dear Ms. Nwosu,

Thank you for organizing the upcoming event. Several of my Kloof colleagues have been discussing the dishes they intend to bring. However, since I have just arrived in South Africa, the culture surrounding a braai picnic is quite new to me. Also, I am not much of a cook, but I do want to contribute to the success of the picnic. Please let me know what would be most helpful.

Sincerely,

Dawyd Johnson
